
FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE
XXI OSTIV-CONGRESS 1989
VIENNA, AUSTRIA

The XXI OSTIV Congress will be held May/June 1989 at the site of the World Gliding Championships at Wiener Neustadt, Austria, 40km from Vienna. The Congress addresses all scientific, technical, medical, safety, training and other related aspects of gliding, motorgliding and ultralight activities.

Papers are solicited for the Scientific Sessions, primarily Meteorology, Atmospheric Physics, Aviation Medicine, etc.; for the Technical Sessions, covering Aerodynamics, Design, Structures, Instrumentation, Propulsion, Safety, etc.; and for the Joint Sessions on Training, Interdisciplinary Topics, Task Philosophy, etc.

More details will be forthcoming in subsequent announcements.